the affair, says: Among the guests there towered the tall form and distinguished face of Lieut.-Gen. Wade Hampton, the great Confederate cavalry officer, and this gentleman was seen to shake hands across the table, which contained partridges and Saddle Rock oysters, with Maj. Gen. Averill, who led many a charge of the Union horse in the shadows and passes of the Blue Ridge. During the evening Gen. Hampton was introduced by the president, and a few words, the hopes and ambitions edition. of the South. I beg to say that I am speaking only for myself, and, by my very large and extended acquaintance throughout our land, I may assure you that the people of the South do not intend to embarrass the Democracy of the State of New York, Our hopes and purposes were almost lost in the very gloom of despair. There was nothing to look for in the future, when the news from the Northwest awaken. ed us from our lethargy. The gloious news came flashing along, telling us of the rising once again of the Democracy, who had nailed their colors to the ramparts, and had declared that the rule of Rings had come to an end. Tht sound rang over the South; the people rallied in their might, and showed their spirit in Louisiana, in Alabama, and in Arkansas, in spite of bayonets and of hordes of ruffianly detectives-in spite of all this the great mass of the people rose and stood stoutly together, and when the night Boston. of the 3d of November came we lay place once more in the roll of States, and even Massachusetts had given a Democratic vote. Tired and heart sore as we were, you may well imagine the feelings of the South. When you had thus extended the right hand of fellowsnip we looked forward with the hope that in the success of the Democratic party we should secure the reinstallation of civil liberty and consti-

"I tell you honestly, truly and sincerely, that I believe in my God, that the people of the South intend not to embarrass the Democracy or the North by the expression of one rash wish .-They would look to them to restore liberty. In the language of the old republic, 'that the republic suffers no detriment. We want no violent revolutions, though I could tell a tale of woe, of insult, and of downright wrong and despotism which would make ten thousand of Republicans say, "can such things be?" and cry shame upon these burdens upon us. I see you have inscribed over your platform Excelsior. It tells simply where the Democratic party is going—to a future in which shall be no North, no South, no East, no West." [Loud Applause.]

tutional government.

speech, others of the invited guests present were called out, and each gave | burst at last. their short word of congratulation and cheer, and at a late hour the party dis-

My First and Last Segar. Rev. DeWitt Talmage, says: By some rare good fortune which put in our hands three cents, we found access to a tobacco store. As the lid of the long, narrow, fragant box opened, and for the first time we owned a segar, our feelings of elation, manliness, superiority, and anticipation can scarcely be imagined, save by those who have had the same sensation .-Our first ride on horseback, though we fell off before we got to the barn and our first pair of new boots (real squeakers), we had thought could never be surpassed in interest; but when we put the segar to our lips and stuck the Lucifer match to the end of the weed, and commenced to pull with an energy that brought every facial muscle to its utmost tension, our satisfaction with this world was so great, our temptation was never to want to leave it. The segar did not burn well. It required an amount of suction that tasked our is nine years old a wrinkle comes on determination to the utmost. You the upper lip, and every year theresee that our worldly means had limited after he has one well-defined wrinkle us to a quality that cost only three for every year after nine. If, for incents. But we had been taught that stance, a horse has three wrinkles, he was appointed chairman of the comnothing great was accomplished without effort, and so we puffed away. Indeed, we had heard our older brothers in their Latia lessons says, Ommeans, If you want to make anything of J. Walter Gray, Esq., for the sum Newberry, is chairman of the commit- following named gentlemen constitute nia Vincet labor; which translated | Mansion House, on Saturday, 21st ult., go, you must scratch for it. With of $40,000; possession to be given 1st tees on Military and Penitentiary, and Mr. Hamilton of Charten Mr. Manilton o these sentiments we passed down the of January. They contemplate spend- is on Privileges and Elections, Rail of Beaufort; Mr. Wallace, of Rtchvillage street and out toward our coun- ing several thousand dollars in mod- Roads, and Immigration. The two land: Mr. Maller, of Lexington, and sketch of President Eliot.

The Editorial departm try home. Our head did not feel ex- ernizing the building, and making it a Houses met in joint assembly and Mr. Wylie, of Lancaster. actly right, and the street began to first-class house in every respect. rock from side to side, so that it was uncertai, to us which side of the burnt, near Trick'em, last Thursday Governor. There was no applause. street we were on. So we crossed uight, together with its entire contents. over, but found ourself on the same It contained a lot of cotton seed and abolish the offices of trial justice and side that we were on before we cross- several bales of cotton in the seed .ed over. Indeed, we were on both It was the work of an incendiary. No sides at the same time, and several fast discoveries vet made, but active measteams driving between. We met ures are in operation to secure the ap- the registration of all the elections in another boy who asked us why we prehension of the guilty one. looked so pale, and we told him we did not look pale, but that he was pale himself. We sat down under the bridge and began to reflect on the prospect of early disease, and, on the uncertainty of all earthly expectations. We had determined to smoke the segar all up, and thus get the worth of our money, but were obliged to throw three fourths of it away, yet knew just where we threw it, in case we felt better the next day. Getting home, the old people were frightened and demanded that we state what kept us so late, and what was the matter with us. Not feeling that we were called to go into particulars, and not wishing to increase our parent's apprehension that we were going to turn out badly, we summed up the case with the statement that we felt miserable at the pit of the stomach. We had mustard relaters administered and careful vice: Faith as a Remedial Agent; Taking plasters administered, and careful Vice; Faith as a Remedial Agent; Taking watching for some hours when we fall Cold; Little Folks; and a variety of rich segar. Being naturally reticent, we have never mentioned it until this time. - Science of Health.

Brief Mentions.

A citizen of Horry drew a prize of Somebody advertises a preparation for keeping a lady's hands free from chaps. A report that she has no money will do the same thing. A colored man in Marion has made and packed this year thirty-six bales of land. Who can beat this? Quite a number of the leading ultra Republican journals demand the passage of the civil rights bill by the next session of Congress.

A writer in the Augusta Constitutionalist says the reason the planters do not prosper better is that there is too much cotton and too many pointer

Louisiana journalism consists chiefly in exasperating somebody until he calls the editor a liar, and then the "I am happy to be able to give, in editor killing him in time for the last

"Ven some man slabs me on der shoulder und says: 'I was glad to hear you vas so vell,' und den sticks be-hind my back his fingers on his nose, I hef my opinion of dat feller."

Miss Annie Rampey, daughter of Mr. D. G. Rampey, of Greenville that he will soon be able to a County, picked two hundred and five the active duties of his office. pounds of cotton on Friday, 16th October. She didn't go to the circus.

Jones, of Vermont, said on his dying bed that he had never written a line which he cared to erase. The whole State was proud of him, but it was found out that he could not write

The Rev. Phillips Brooks has refused a salary of $20,000 a year from Philadelphia, said to be the highest salary ever offered to an Episcopal clergyman in this country, and one of $15,000 from New York. He loves

A heavy earthquake is reported in down conscious of having done our Chili. Earthquakes, tidal waves, tyduty, be the result what it may. On phoons, colipses and falling stars have the morning of the 4th came the glo- been the great events in both hemis- will hold its session in the city of erate yet firm, and show what reform rious word of the Empire State, which pheres for a month or two, including Greenville, including the second Sun- it is reasonable to look for from the had risen in its majesty to a leading our October and November State

Only one colored man will occupy a seat in the United States Senate, in the next Congress, and his will be the seat once occupied by Jefferson Davis. Of the one hundred and seventy-five Congressmen elected this fall, only

A policeman in Chicago, passing house one night recently, heard woman screaming, "O, Henry, Henry, come here quick! Susan! Mother! The baby!" Gallantly breaking in the door and rushing up stairs, the officer found that the baby had just Terrible subterraneous rumblings commenced on the 11th inst. at trembling of the earth. Many edifices were injured by the shock. Rumblings have since become so continuous that the people are alarmed, and many families are leaving.

The Asheville Expositor says Bald Mountain is again on the shake. shocks were felt at the distance of six berry to attend. miles. Glasses on the tables were made At the close of Gen. Hampton's to rattle. The shocks were equal to those of last winter. Maybe she will

It is stated that George Jones, publisher of the New York Times newspaper, has purchased from ex-Gov. Edward D. Morgan the whole of the latter's stook in that paper at $12,000 a share. Mr. Morgan transferred

A Republican merchant in Cincinnati, having a large business with the South, stated openly last week, that he considered his credits worth twenty per cent. more since the recent elections. The packers attribute the adthe barley men swear it is so.

following manner: "Emma, dau'er of of Abraham and Matilda C-, and wife of Theodore S—, died August to contemplate.

10th, 1868, Æ 26 yrs., leaving five ildren-married too young against or father's will. Single women take

An Illinois farmer determines the age of animals over nine years old by the following method: After the horse lumbia, purchased the Greenville

Mr. Jas. Puckett's cotton house was [Abbeville Medium.

A literary curiosity is now for sale at Peking. It consists of a copy of a gigantic work composed of 6,109 volumes, entitled "An Imperial Colture." This huge encyclopædia was commenced during the reign of the Emperor Kang-he (1662-1722), and was printed at the Imperial Printing Office, where a complete font of copper type was cast for the purpose.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH for December closes the fifth volume of the most useful magazine, and is an excellent number, as may be seen from the following table of conwatching for some hours, when we fell health paragraphs; only 20 cents, or $2.00 a sleep and forgot our disappointment and humiliation in being obliged to for 1875. Address S. R. WELLS, Publisher,

The Herald.

THOS. F. GRENEKER, EDITOR

NEWBERRY, S. C. WEDNESDAY, DEC. 2, 1874

A PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE. The Herald is in the highest respect a Fam ily Newspaper, devoted to the material in-terests of the people of this County and the State. It circulates extensively, and as an Advertising medium offers unrivalled advantages. For Terms, see first page.

The Southern Home wants to know if Grant is satisfied with the unloading brought about by the late elections. He started the talk about "unloading."

We regret to learn that Superintendent W. W. Davies, of the Spartanburg and Union Railroad, was severely injured internally on last Monday week by attempting to leap from the locomotive at Alston. We hope his injuries are of such slight character as that he will soon be able to attend to

Dr. F. A. Rice and Mr. Harrison Pruitt, two worthy and promising young citizens of Anderson County, were killed in Anderson County last week by the explosion of a steam engine used in running a cotton gin. The engineer had left the engine in charge of a negro but a few minutes before the explosion took place. Two other persons were injured.

The South Carolina Annual Conference.

The Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, day in December. The citizens of new administration, and especially as that place are making ample arrangements for the reception and accommo- of the important features is that there his inaugural address said: "With dation of the large body of delegates

Mass Meeting at Union.

There will be a mass meeting at Union on Saturday, the 12th December, in the interests of the Spartanburg and Asheville Railroad. Hon C. G. Memminger, of Charleston, Ex-Gov. Z. B. Vance, of Charlotte, Hon. T. L. Clingman, of Asheville, Hon. T. L. Jones, of Newport, Ky., and Guanajuato, and was followed by a other distinguished citizens of Kentucky, Tennessee, North and South Carolina have been invited to make addresses on the occasion.

On behalf of the committee of Invitation, Messrs. T. B. Jeter, B. F. Rawls and W. H. Wallace, we extend A few nights ago five or six terrible an invitation to the citizens of New-

Arrests in Edgefield.

A reign of terror exists in Edgefield, and bayonet law is supreme. The names of those arrested so far are Col. R. B. Hughes, Rev. E. T. Walker, Col. John Cheatham, Mr. John H. Hollingsworth and Mr. John Colgan, fourteen shares at this price; total, Sr. The charge against Col. Hughes: Walker, Cheatham and Hollingsworth is intimidation, and that against Colgan is for selling tobacco without license. Mr. Walker is an exile from Beaufort, his possessions there being still held by those who stole them vance in hogs to the same cause, and thirteen years ago. He is described as a pure and pious gentleman .-A tombstone at Saratoga lifts up a Squads of U. S. troops acting as cavwarning voice to single women in the alry, scour the country night and day. Such a state of affairs is too horrible Legislative.

The General Assembly convened on Tuesday, the 23rd. R. B. Elliott was this preamble and resolutions. elected speaker of the House--a very bad beginning we think. The fo. mer clerks. Jones for the Senate, and Woodruff for the House, were re-elected. Mr. J. C. Hope, of Lexington, is twelve; if he has four, he is thir- mittee on Agriculture, besides, is on Enrolled Bills, Incorporations, Public Messrs. Calnan and Roath, of Co- Lands. Retrenchments, County Offices and Offices. Mr. H. C. Corwin, of and adopted without dissent. heard the returns of the election for Notice of a bill has been given to Union, was also adopted unanimously: county auditor, which we think eminently good. One also to provide for the State. A good resolution has been offered by Paris Simkins of Edgefield, and County Treasurers. to prohibit armed bodies from assembling without authority of law. A concurrent resolution has been offered. lection of Aucient and Modern Litera- calling on Gov. Moses for the number Transmission of Moral Tendenof persons pardoned during the year, and the reasons and circumstances for such pardons. Mr. J. C. Hope goes youth, that the children of classical in for reducing the salary of members. scholars exhibit an usual aptitude for

J. Boston, of Newberry.

In a recent number of the Somerville (Mass.) Chronicle, handed us by lina United.

made of the marriage of Miss Margaret R. Owen, a sister-in-law of Mr. E. S. Bailey, formerly of Newberry, will gratify the very many friends of Mr. Bailey in this place, who have not forgotten "auld lang syne." have no doubt it was "good to be there," and wish we had. Here is with the editor's happy notice: In this city, 17th, by Rev. Mr. Durrell GEORGE W. BAILEY, of

MATRIMONIAL .- A very happy occasion was had on Tuesday evening last at the house of Mr. E. S. Bailey, Boston street, being the event of a the most viciously inclined can reach marriage between Mr. George W. Bailey, of Somerville, and Miss Margaret R. Owen, of South Carolina .-The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Durrell, pastor of St. Thomas' church, of which Mr. Bailey is a member. A large number were present to congratulate the newly married couple and partake with them of an elegant repast set in the dining hall. Sentiments of good cheer were uttered, prominent among them being the union of Massachusetts and South Carolina, very pleasing coincident. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Gilbert, of North Cambridge, favored the company with some excellent singing, one selection being of Mr. Gilbert's own composition. We doubt if a happier occasion ever transpired and felt it was "good to be there."

OWEN of South Carolina.

The Tax Union.

The State Tax Union, which me in Columbia, according to appointment, adjourned on Wednesday last after a harmonious meeting. The attendance, it is said, was not large, for the reason that sufficient notice was not made. The resolutions adopted, and which are appended below, are modpledges were made to that end. One be a decrease in taxation, and reform

Whereas, it is not the intention of Chamberlain, but on the contrary, to furnish all the aid and moral support possible to the chief executive of the State in carrying out of which he has so solemnly pledged himself to the people of South Carolina; and whereas, it appears to be of imperative necesthe people of South Carolina that the following measures of reform shall be enacted by the General Assembly and effected by the Governor, to wit:

1. That the expenses of the State Government be by law at once reduced within fixed and reasonable limits, and the present tax levy for the present year be curtailed in conformity terference, the right of just and wise to such reduction.

2. That a stringent law for the registration of the voters of the State obedience to the mandatory requirement of the Constitution be passed by this General Assembly. 3. That his excellency the Govermoval and appointment, enact a change in the officials now holding office by Executive sanction, so that the inbe removed, and that competent and honest men may be appointed in their places: therefore, be it

Resolved, That a committee of five and support of such measures of retee or committees of the General Assembly for the purpose of securing, if possible, the objects indicated in

Resolved, That said committee do report, from time to time, to the President of this body their actings, doings and conclusions, with any special recommendations.

4. That the Governor be requested to extend the time for the payment of These resolutions were maturely considered, discussed at some length, Mr. Wylie, of Lancaster.

The following supplementary resolution, offered by Mr. Robertson, of York, and amended by Mr Jeter, of Union and Ame

Resolved, That the committee b charged with requesting that the General Assembly provide by law for the election of Justices of the Peace. as provided for by the Constitution;

A paper was submitted by Mr. Wm. Wallace, which was referred to the Committe of Five.

It has been observed by teachers of amend an act to divide the State into mathematicians possess unusual readifive Congressional Districts. This no- ness in mathematical studies. Poetily of Æschylus were eight poets .- smaller articles. The indications given during this Parents of marked mental ability

Massachusetts and South Caro- mitted as a well-established law of

The hereditary transmission of moral powers, and immoral or vicious tena friend, we find pleasant mention dencies, has not been so generally admitted as an established truth. It is often considered that the moral capabilities of individuals are equal; which we copy in full, knowing that it that the tendencies to virtue or vice are alike in the dispositions of all that every one and all may obtain to equal excellence of moral character .-No difference is recognized by many in the original moral constitution of the marriage announcement, together of the virtuous and vicious; they might mutually have exactly changed places with each other; the vicious might Tuesday Night, Dec. 15, 1874. have become equally as virtuous as the Somerville, and Miss MARGARET R. most moral; equally as vicious as the > most degraded. It may be admitted that all may become virtuous. Yet it is not true that the same degree of moral development as those morally inclined by nature. There is a difference in the natural moral endowments of individualsdifferences that are just as marked as are the differences in intelligence. It is just as impossible for the person born with weak moral sensibilities to attain to the highest position of moral excellence, as it is for the simpleminded man to become developed by will be practiced. education into one of the most illustrious intellectual men of the age .-Genius in morals is inborn as well as is genius in intellect. There is an inherited difference in the moral capacities of men, while all are possessed of sufficient moral capacity to enable them, urder favoring circumstances, to become virtuous citizens; yet some of these, if exposed to vicious surroundings, imbibe vice through every pore as a sponge takes in water. Vice is their natural element, and if anything different is made of them, they must be transplanted to a purer atmosphere.

Science of Health. REDEEMED ALABAMA. - MONTGOM-ERY, ALA., November 24.—This has been a day of great rejoicing, and an immense concourse of people are in the cent. Gov. Houston, in the course of firm determination to respect and maintain my oath of office, which shall be a and visitors who will attend on that should begin right there. Here are seal to my conscience, I unhesitatingly the resolutions however, plain, short undertake to perform such duties as it imposes; and I will remark that it is one of my highest and most sacred obligations to see that the laws are this body, or the tax-payers by it re- faithfully executed, and the rights of all presented, to make any captious op- citizens, without regard to race, color position to the administration of the or previous condition, duly guarded and State Government by Governor protected. Let these occasions inspire liberty, regulated by law, without against domestic discord or violence. bringing about the great reforms of and that our duty to preserve such laws which he has so strongly spoken in in their constitutional purity and power his campaign speeches, and for the cannot and should not be avoided. We must restore the credit of the State to its former high and honorable position preserve inviolate her good faith, and at the same time protect her people against excessive and unjust taxation. sity to the happiness and welfare of All the citizens of Alabama truly desire peace and a perfect restoration of the fraternal relations between all sections of our common country. They are loyal to the Government of the United States, and will readily yield full obedience to its authority and laws. They only ask to be permitted under the constitution and laws of the country to exercise, secure from unwarrantable inlegal self-government." United States flags were conspicuous in the proces-

GRAND DIVISION SONS OF TEM-PERANCE OF SOUTH CAROLINA .-The following officers were duly elected on Thursday, November 26, 1874, by nor shall at once, by his power of rethis grand body, and were duly installed by Most Worthy Patriarch F. M. Bradley, of the National Division of North America, assisted by Most competent and dishonest officials may | Worthy Associate Edward Carswell, as Grand Conductor:

W. Z. Leitner, of Wateree, No. 9 Grand Worthy Patriarch; L. R. Mar shall, of Newberry, No. 8, Grand be appointed by the President of this Worthy Associate; Oliver Hewitt, of body, who shall be authorized to seek Hope, No. 2, Grand Scribe; John H audience of his Excellency the Gover- Hardin, of Fidelity, No. 4, Grand nor and urge his recommendation Treasurer; A. B. Towers, of Anderson, No. 1, Grand Chaplain; W. B. Whaley, of Atlantic, No. 69, Grand Con-Resolved, That said committee ductor; John W. Zimmerman, of have power to confer with any commit- Batesburg, No. 47, Grand Sentinel.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.-The December closing the twentieth volume of the new se ries. It has a fine portrait of President Ellot, of Harvard University, a companion to that of President Porter, of Yale, which appeared in the October number, and is to be followed by a number of others in a series intended to include the leading professors and educational men in the country. The articles, of which the following is a list, are all readable and instructive, several of them being very striking: English Vers de Societe; Joseph Priestley, by Professor taxes, with a view to obtaining a re-Huxley; Contrasts of Ancient and Modern History, by Prof. F. W. Newman: Mr. Disraeli's Novels, by Leslie Stephen; The Sun a Bubble, by Richard Proctor, B. A., F. R. S.; The Empress Eugenie, sketched by Napoleon III.; The Golden Mean; The Future of Eastern Asia, by Sir Rutherford Alcock; Far from the Madding Crowd, by Thomas Hardy. Chapters 43 to 47; Formosa; About Master Betty; To a Poet; Comets' Tails; The Pro-longation of Life: The Swallow's Farewell; Julian Hawthorne's Romance, and a brief The Editorial departments present the DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—The residence, with its entire contents, of Mrs. Bearden, relict of Maj. - Bearden, residing in the lower part of this County, was burned down on last Monday. It appears that no one was about the house. and also for that of County Auditors the occupants having locked up the same and gone to a sale in the neighborhood. This is a severe loss to Mrs. B., as everything contained in the house was destroyed, including two gold watches. She had nothing left of the contents of the house-nothing left her but the wearing apparel she had on her person. Origin of fire not known.

[Laurensville Herald.

On last Friday night week two outbuildings of Mr. John H. Hollings-Also notice of a bill to alter and learning the classics. Children of worth, of Edgefield, were consumed by fire-the work of an incendiary .-Besides the outbuildings, Mr. Hollingsworth lost two valuable vehicles, tice has been given by Representative cal talent is hereditary. In the fami- a carriage and a buggy, also sundry

PEOPLE WILL GHE MARRIED, and most of the first week of the session are rather usually have children of ability, while us do not have but one chance, so do it up in favorable for some degree of reform. people of simple minds impart to their style. Moreover, it is a poor compliment to cow had on a bell when she left, and is style. Moreover, it is a poor compliment to cow had on a bell when she left, and is The inauguration of the Governor offspring a like quality of intelligence. with a shabby invitation. The invitation is elect and his message which will fol- The facts are so numerous and the your bow; it introduces the life of the new couple, and should be in the best style. low will aid the people in understand- evidence so conclusive as to prove the C., have all the finest styles of paper, cards, ing what may be expected from that inheritance of mental aptitudes and counter.

Co., nave all the nnest styles of paper, cards, &c., and execute the work in the highest style of the art. Send to them for same to the control of the art. Send to them for same to the control of the art.

New & Miscellaneous.

TO RENT.

A HOUSE AND LOT on Pratt Street opposite Mr. R. L. McCaughrin's residence. The house contains nine rooms beside the kitchen, all under the same roof, and would be very convenient for two families-there being servants' houses sufficient for two establishments. The lot is two acres, one of which is a rich kitchen garden. The water is most excellent.

Dec. 2, 48-1f. WILLIAMSTON FEMALE COLLEGE WILLIAMSTON, S. C.

> CLOSING CONCERT. Almae matri filiae dant.

Admission, 50 Cents.

TAX NOTICE.

Taxes are due until 20th of January, as notice in Tax Notice Nov. 20th, 1874, without penalty. Office open for business from 9 o'clock, A. M., until 4 P. M. School Claims will be paid on order of School Commissioner, the first Saturday after the 15th of each month. County claims will be paid on the 3d and 17th of each month, when so ordered by Court or County Commissioners. No deviation from these regulations Done at the Treasurer's Office, Dec. 1st, D. R. PHIFER. Gounty Treasurer. Progressive Age copy once.

Statement of Orders Drawn by the Board of County Commissioners on the Treasurer, for the Current Fis-31st, 1874.

Nov 4 In favor Thomas Keitt ... $ 15 00 Dennis Moates..... 10 00 " J. A. Chapman 10 00 " W. M. Fleming, Sol'r 444 50 13 "W. M. Fleming, Sol'r 150 00 13 "W. M. Fleming, Sol'r 150 00 13 "W. M. Fleming, Sol'r 150 00 13 "W. M. Fleming, Sol'r 110 00 " Baxter & Johnstone. 200 00 " Allen Rice..... 45 50

" Thomas Keitt Lovelace & Wheeler. J. C. Leahy..... W. M. Fleming..... 154 50 Jesse C. Smith..... Jno. J. Carrington.. 152 45

" A. R. Gantt " D. R. Phifer 335 50 J. A. Henderson.... W. F. Nance..... 29 " H. H. Blease. Osborne Wells..... 157 20 " J. H. Blease, Salary. " J. C. Smith...... J. C. Leahy...... 18 00 John J. Carrington .. 1027 50 W. W. Houseal.... 124 80 Thomas Keitt Allen Ricc D. R. Phifer..... 246 25 Dennis Moates... 56 00

Simeon Young..... 243 00 Lovelace & Wheeler, 1049 83 R. C. Chapman..... 29 " G. W. Ga. many 29 " J. W. Hayward. ... Rodelsperger&Hornsby Edmund Nance Wright & Coppock ..

W. M. Fleming 29 " J. M. H. Ruff...... Lovelace & Wheeler. Den ils Mostes..... Thomas Keitt J. C. Smith...... Press Cannon..... 19 " Simcon Young Dennis Moates

D. R. Phifer.... Thomas Keitt W. Y. Fair " G. P. Jacoby " J. H. Blease " D. R. Phifer

Henry Kennedy 16 " H.C. Moses, for others Dennis Moates..... H. C. Moses..... Dennis Moates..... Thomas Cook H. C. Moses..... Thomas Keitt..... Dennis Moates. J. J. Carrington

16 " D. R. Phifer Henry Kennedy Dr. J. W. Folk Simeon Young W. M. Fleming 16 " J. A. Henderson.... Oct 18 " D. R. Phifer..... 161 50 " H. C. Moses..... 19 " T. F. Greneker

Total Drafts Drawn $11,970 31 There were thirty-six (36) meetings of the Board of Commissioners from the 1st Nov. 1873, to 1st Nov. 1874. 360 miles travelled by Thomas Keitt attending said meetings. 612 miles travelled by Allen Rice in tending said meetings. I certify that to the best of my know!

edge and belief the above is a true and correct statement, as appears by the Records Clerk of Board. Newberry, S. C., Nov. 24, 1874. 48-1

NOTICE.

attorneys, Messrs. Pope, Pope & Fair, at

All persons holding demands against the Estate of Williams Welch, deceased, will render the same properly attested to our ruary, A. D. 1875.

deceased

Newberry C. H., S. C., November 25 Dce. 2, 48-3t.*

NOTICE.

Qual. Ex'ors. of Will of Williams Welch.

R. E. WELCH,

Having made a settlement on the Estate of Etta M. Wearn, minor, I will apply for a final discharge to the Probate Court for Newberry County on the 31st day of December next. JOHN R. SPEARMAN, Guardian of Etta M. Wearn November 24th, 1874. Dec. 2, 48-5t* Atlanta and Richmond Air Line

COW LOST. A RED COW, with long keen horns, and some little white under the belly, strayed from the subscriber some weeks ago. Said Mr. Wm. Fair's and Mr. Thos. M. Lake's places. Any information which may lead to her recovery will be very thankfully received, or if brought to me a suitable reward will be given. JOHN DUNGAN, . Near the College Building.

Miscellaneous.

SOLUBLE PACIFIC GLASO. UNPRECEDENTED

$48 Cash, $53 Time, without Interest. PACIFIC GUANO COMPANY'S COM POUND ACID PHOSPHATE OF LIME for Composting with Cotton Seed, $33 Cash, $38 Time, without Interest. To accommodate Planters, they can or der now and have until 1st April to decide whether they will take at time or eash price.

When delivered from Factory by carload, no drayage will be charged. This Camo is now so well known in all the Southern States for its remarkable effects as an agenby for increasing the products of labor as not to require special recommendation from us. Its use for nine years past has estab-lished its character for reliable excellence. The supplies put into market this season are, as heretofore, prepared under the su-perintendence of Dr. ST. JULIAN RAVE-NEL, Chemist of the Company, at Charleston, S. C., hence Planters may rest assured that its quality and composition is precisely the same as that heretofore sold. J. N. ROBSON,

Agent for South Carolina, Charleston, S. C. JOHN S. REESE & CO., General Agents. Nov. 24, 47-3m.

TO RENT.

The Store between Marshall's and Phifer's. The Rooms at present occupied by Her-Possession given 1st day of January For terms apply to CYNTHIA MOWER and GEO. S. MOWER.

Nov. 24, 47-tf. Administratrix's Notice. Notice is hereby given that I will make final settlement on the Estate of Danne discharge as Administratrix of the same on the 24th day of December next. Parties CYNTHIA MOWER, Nov. 24, 47-5t. cal Year, Ending October POPULAR FERTILIZERS

17 CENTS Per Pound for Cotton in Exchange for Wilcox, Gibbs & Co.'s GUANOS, PAYABLE NEXT FALL.

A full supply of STONO GUANO, and ACID PHOSPHATE always on hand. Call and get a supply at once. LEAVELL & SPEARMAN, Nov. 25, 47-3t.

NOTICE. On the 19th day of December, I will Thos. W. Gallman and Elvira A. Gallman, and apply for my discharge as Guardian of J. J. GALLMAN, Nov. 17, 1874-46-5t*

Notice of Final Discharge. Notice is hereby given that I will apply for final discharge as Trustee of Mrs. Eliza-beth Eliisor, on the 26th day of December next, having aircady made the final settlement on her Estate. Nov. 21, 47-5t.

NOTICE. I will make a settlement on the 14th day of December next, as Guardian of Lura R

Watson, in the Probate Court for Newberry Thomas Cook 600 00 charge as such Guardian. Guardian of said Lura R. Watson. Nov. 5, 1874-45-5t*

THURSDAY AND

L. R. MARSHALL.

IRA B. JONES, ATTORNEY AT LAW PROSPERITY, S. C.

Oct. 7, 40-6m.

Greenville & Columbia Railroad On and after Friday. August 28, 1874, the Passenger Trains on the Greenville & Columbia Rail Road, will run the following Schedule, daily, Sundays excepted, connecting with Night Trains on South Carolina Railroad, up and down, also with Trains going North and South on Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad, and Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad:

Newberry. Arrive Greenville. . DOWN Leave Greenville. ANDERSON BRANCH AND BLUE RIDGE DIVISION their office at Newberry Court House, South Carolina, on or before the 18th day of Feb-Anderson Connecting with down train from Greenville. Leave Belton at.

> Arrive at Walhalla.... 7.15 p m
> Accommodation Trains run on Abbeville
> Branch, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.—
> On Anderson Branch, between Belton and Anderson, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.
> THOS. DODAMEAD, Gen'l Supt. JABEZ NORTON, General Ticket Agent, Sep. 2, 35-tf.

" Perryville......

The following Passenger Schedule will be operated on and after Monday, Oct. 19th; 1874—Run by Atlanta Time. GOING NORTH-EXPRESS TRAIN. Leave Atlanta

GOING SOUTH-EXPRESS TRAIN. Leave Spartanburg. Arrive at Atlanta B. Y. SAGE, Eng. & Sup't. Niscellancous.

ATTRACTIONS!

AT THE

The Oldest Inhabitant

As well as the youngest child, will now be proprietor of the above named popular

GOOD PEOPLE OF NEWBERRY My stock for this Fall and Winter, Including the Holiday Season.

Is better, bigger and braver than it ever was before, and For Proof of the Assertion

I simply ask an examination. Every want of the human family can be supplied, as will have in store 2.000 lbs. of Assorted Candies, 18 BARRELS OF CAKES AND CRACKERS assorted, fresh and genuine. ORANGES, APPLES, BANANAS DATES, LEMONS, RAISINS, in LARGE QUANTITIES.

CANNED GOODS. Mower, deceased, and will apply for final Ot every variety, in fish, fiesh, fowl, proserved fruits, etc.

debted to the Estate must settle before NUTS, OF EVERY KIND, Nic Nacs and Notions. A full stock of

> GROCERIES, Coffee, Sugar, Flour, Rice, Grist, Meal Mackerel, Soaps, Spice, Ginger, Cinna-mon, Mace, Pepper, Salt, Soda, Yeast Powders, Gandles, Pickles, Dried

Fruit, Potatoes, Peas, Beans, Cabbage, Cod-fish, Vinegar, and many other things. And Last, But Not Least, SUCH A LOT OF TOYS.

As never before have been seen in the town of Newberry.
Now friends I am determined to please you with a stock of goods from which you cannot fail to be satisfied, and which will be lept up to a full standard until everybody is supplied. My prices, too, are marked down to living rates. Come and see me, and do not put off your coming, but come at once and be made happy by your old friend, A. M. WICKER.

DOES and ROMAN CANDLES,

WATCHES.

Nov. 18, 46-7t.

CLOCKS.

JEWELRY. SILVER AND PLATED WARE SPECTACLES,

EYE-GLASSES.

FANCY GOODS. &c., &c., &c.

Having just remodelled and newly fitted up my store, I would ask the public to give Stock is Now the Largest ever offered in this part of the State, and

PRICES AS LOW as can be found in the South. My goods are bought direct from the Manufacturers, and, consequently, can be sold as cheap as any other House in the All American Gold and Silver Watches sold at Manufacturers' Catalogue prices.

I keep a large stock of Spectacles and Eye-Glasses.

set in Gold, Steel, Rubber and Shell Frames, to suit all ages, from the best Manufacturers in the United States.

A large stock of Birth-day and Bridal Presents, Engagement Rings, &c. In my Establishment Gold is sold for Gold, and Brass is sold for Brass.

and my customers may rely upon getting what they bargain for. ALL KINDS OF WATCH, CLOCK AND JEWELRY REPAIRING DONE AT SHORT NOTICE AND IN WORK-MANLIKE STYLE.

All goods sold warranted as represented,

5.30 a m
5.30 a m
7.20 a m
8.10 a m
Goods sent C. O. D. to all parts of the country, with the privilege of examining before paying for them. Hair Jewelry of all Descriptions Made to Order.

JOHN F. SPECK. PRATT STREET, NEWBERRY, S. C. Oct. 14, 41-tf.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE! ON SALE-DAY NEXT, MONDAY, DE-CEMBER 7th, I will sell, at public outery, One Fine Gold Watch.

TERMS CASH. M. D. SUBER, Adm'r., of Geo. A. Suber. Nov. 18, 46-3t.

Dry Goods, Groceries, &c. J. H. GAILLARD.

THOS. COOK,

Dry Goods, Clothing, GROCERIES, &c.

(Under Newberry Hotel.)

Respectfully informs his friends and the public generally of this and surrounding Counties, that his stock of FALL AND WINTER GOODS is

Large, Varied and Choice, And embrace the best qualities and styles of goods for ladies, gentlemen and youth, DRY GOODS.

CLOTHING. BOOTS, SHOES and HATS. Together with the choicest and best of All Kinds of GROCERIES.

either for family or plantation use, all of which are offered at Moderate Prices for Cash. Thankful for past favors, he begs a coninuance, with the assurance that no pains will be spared to give the utmost satisfac-

Sep. 23, 38-tf. A FULL LINE

DRY GOODS. Dress Goods, Calicoes, Hosiery, Gloves, Laces, Collars, Ribbons, Homespuns. Cassimeres, Cloths, Kerseys, Shirts, Draw-Splendid All-Wool Shawls.

For gentlemen and ladies.

Domestic and Staple Goods in endless va BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, CLOTHING, HARDWARE AND CUTLERY. SADDLES and BRIDLES

A superior lot of UMBRELLAS, for hand and buggy: FINE AND COMMON TRUNKS Among which are those convenient and ele-

SOLD LOW FOR CASH. We are always glad to show our goods and P. W. & R. S. CHICK.

STOCK OF

THOS. F. HARMON

Would respectfully inform his friends and customers that he is now receiving his FALL AND WINTER STOCK OF GOODS.

HE CAN SELL VERY LOW, As he has bought them with great care and will be glad to show them to all. His stock

DRY GOODS. CLOTHING,

LARGE AND COMPLETE.

HATS, BOOTS AND SHOES, GROCERIES, &c., All of which WILL BE SOLD LOW.

DEALERS IN GROCERIES, Of all kinds, such as

Sugars, Coffee, Rice, Bacon, Choice Hams, Flour, Lard, Molasses,

FRESH MEAL AND GRIST. Pickles, Canned Fruit, Oysters, Sardines, Crackers, Segars, Tobacco, Together with Sheetings and Yarns, BAGGING AND TIES, NON-EXPLOSIVE KEROSENE.

and all other articles to be found in a GRO

CERY STORE, and all of which will

BE SOLD CHEAP Oct. 15, 41-1y. SURVEYING. The undersigned, being provided with

All orders left at Suber & Caldwell's Law Office, or Mrs. U. Mo ver's Store will receive F. WERBER, JR., Oct, 7, 40-1y. Deputy Surveyor, acy and dispatch.

the most improved instruments, is prepared to do all kinds of SURVEYING with accu-